1. In my conversations last November with Mr. [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] a number of questions were raised over discrepancies that exist between figures carried by the Agency and by [REDACTED] for certain Communist credits to less developed countries. I am listing below some of the information on which the Agency has based its judgments and, wherever possible, have appended relevant source materials. We would welcome further comments from [REDACTED] and his staff, especially those that may emanate from our forthcoming report for 1965.

2. Please offer my apologies for the delay in transmitting this information, but on my return I became involved immediately in preparing the Semiannual -- now the Annual.
